

The Craftsman Diary

-Edition 9

Section 1

2023 burst forth to life at Autumnwood, as it did across the nation with festivities galore. Along with the denizens of Tamil Nadu celebrating Pongal over three days, the people of Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka and Telangana celebrating Sankranti with new vestures, the citizens of Gujarat flying kites in joy for Uttarayan, the Punjab people harvesting plenty for Lohri and the tribes of Assam and Bengal dancing in joy for Magha Saaji, at Autumnwood, we all embraced the happiness and joy that these festivals bring with optimism and enthusiasm. Here is a quick glance of our Lohri & Republic Day celebrations.

Section 2

Starting the year with the right strokes on the perfect pitch, Autumnwood played a friendly cricket match against fellow-company AGX on the bright and sprightly morning of the 22nd January 2023. The Autumnwood team won by a margin of 5 wickets through significant and excellent contributions from Bapu, Sham and Kiran.

It was a match that radiated camaraderie and team spirit throughout and every shot was cheered, while every wicket was celebrated! In the end, the cheerful smiles on all faces as the teams walked off the field, arm-in-arm, proved that cricket and friendship were the true winners of the day!
